

20 words:20,000 trees

300 people planted trees at Shocott Spring; February 2008.
Many wrote 20 words about the experience.
Here are some results

Came by bus
Dug a hole
Planted a tree...
and another...
and another...
and so the forest began to grow!

Liz Millbank

We planted trees, dad and me
Twenty perfect trees
Waiting now to plant some more
Let us know when, please

Tara-Rose Fayers

Trees provide us with oxygen which we breathe.
We planted so when we grow up we can walk through it.

Daniel Pulley

My dearest Grandchild, you are 15, I am 60,
together we went planting trees,
making the world a greener place.

Stella Good

These four pieces can be seen in the centre of Shocott Spring, mounted on 2 large lumps of oak.
